

Pokémon Organized Play Seasonal Format Rotation

Effective: 9/1/2009

In the interest of maintaining a healthy tournament environment, Pokémon Organized Play removes older sets from the Modified format at the beginning of each new tournament season. Each rotation challenges existing players to create new strategies while enabling new players to get into organized play with a minimal investment.

In an effort to increase the depth of the available card pool at early season events, Pokémon Organized Play will forego its standard set rotation for the 2009–2010 tournament season, creating a Modified format with nine regular sets at the beginning of the season, and ending the season with thirteen regular sets.

The modified format for the 2009–2010 season will consist of the following sets:

	Diamond & Pearl
	Diamond & Pearl: Mysterious Treasures
	Diamond & Pearl: Secret Wonders
	Diamond & Pearl: Great Encounters
	Diamond & Pearl: Majestic Dawn
	Diamond & Pearl: Legends Awakened
	Diamond & Pearl: Stormfront
	Platinum
	Platinum: Rising Rivals
	Diamond & Pearl Trainer Kit
	POP Series 6–9 Promo Cards
	Black Star Promo Cards numbered DP01 and higher

In addition, future Pokémon TCG sets will become legal as they are released, per the Pokémon Organized Play Tournament Rules.

Pokémon Organized Play will resume the seasonal format rotation with the 2010–2011 tournament season.